Mini Bio: Katherine (Katie) Grams is a very driven, energetic, and passionate person. With an eclectic background in theatre, science, modeling, and management, and impeccable comedic timing, Katie was born to be an entertainer. Katie has served as a brand ambassador and spokesmodel for many products. And she has most recently made a splash on the internet as the character KatieMerp on many social streaming platforms and is a top official broadcast host on Bigo Live App. Katie was awarded a trophy by her cast mates for her portrayal of the lead role, June in June's Baby Shower and she was also part of an award winning 48 Hour Film Festival team in 2018 as a co-writer, costumer, location scout, and actress. Katie tackles each project with the same zest for life that she exudes in everyday activities.
